15th MAY 2017 * SUMMER TERM * ISSUE 29

Dear Parents and Carers,

We appear to be having the April showers now in May – let's hope it improves before the May Bank holiday weekend!

Personal, Social Health and Emotional Education (PSHE)

Jigsaw lessons right across school are proving to be very popular with pupils. We introduced these lessons around PSHE back in the Autumn term. I did chuckle this week when a couple of our younger children told me that they were racing back to class because it was Jigsaw time. After Half Term, Jigsaw lessons will focus upon Sex and Relationships Education. I have met with Senior staff today and will be sending out some information about these lessons next week. Please look out for the email as it is important information.

PTA

We have a PTA meeting planned for Wednesday to discuss the Summer Fete. I cannot stress highly enough the need we have for help. The commitment would be to attend a PTA meeting for an hour or so, once per half term, with the members and myself; you would also need to help at some of the events. At the moment the committee is small and there are lots of classes without parent representatives. We have no parents representing Year 2 or Year 5 at all. If you can help then please join us. We are meeting at the school entrance just before 7pm next Wednesday.

Staff News

Miss Myers had baby Ella Grace a little early. Mum and baby are doing well.

Mrs Charley is absent from school at the moment due to a serious injury. She is on the mend and we are hoping that she will be back very soon.

We have a nasty virus going around at the moment. A number of pupils and staff have been quite sick so please take care of yourselves and let's hope the worse of it is over.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs C Robinson
Headteacher BEd Hons. NPQH

WEEKLY FOCUS

Assembly Focus: World Fair Trade Day

Musical Inspiration: We are Family – Sister Sledge

Word of the week: "Hola" (OH-la)
